

1. The first group of respondents (10%) was composed of 100% females, all of whom were employed in the health care industry. The majority of these respondents (60%) were employed in a hospital setting, with the remainder working in a long-term care facility, a health care consulting firm, or a health care organization. The majority of these respondents (60%) were employed in a hospital setting, with the remainder working in a long-term care facility, a health care consulting firm, or a health care organization.

10/601,802

Samuel A. Turner

MARRON, JOSEPH C.

2877

[illegible]

INTERFERENCE SEARCHED
Class	Subclass	Date	Examiner
356	S12	12-12-03	SA7

[illegible]